

GREEN CARD LOTTERY - DV 2013

The “Green Card Lottery,” officially called “Diversity Visa Lottery Program,” was created for people who come from countries with low rates of immigration to the United States. 50,000 immigrant visas are made available through this program every year. None of these visas are available for people who come from countries that have sent more than 50,000 immigrants to the United States in the past five years. The State Department’s National Visa holds the Lottery every year, and chooses winners randomly from all qualified entries. Anyone who is selected under this lottery will be given the opportunity to apply for permanent residence. If permanent residence is granted, the individual will be authorized to live and work permanently in the United States. You will also be allowed to bring your spouse and any unmarried children under the age of 21 to the United States.

Countries that do NOT qualify for the “Green Card Lottery 2013”:

NORTH AMERICA, SOUTH AMERICA, CENTRAL AMERICA:

Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Jamaica, Mexico, Peru

EUROPE:

United Kingdom (except Northern Ireland) and its dependent areas: Anguilla, Bermuda, British Virgin Islands, Cayman Islands, Falkland Islands, Gibraltar, Montserrat, Pitcairn, St. Helena, Turks and Caicos Islands

ASIA:

Bangladesh, China (mainland), India, Pakistan, South Korea, Philippines, Vietnam

Persons born in HONG KONG S.A.R, MACAU S.A.R, and TAIWAN do qualify.

Note: Those who were born in an ineligible country may still enter the Lottery if their spouse (legally married husband or wife) or one of their parents was born in an eligible country.

On the application form – in the “note” space – write either the parent or spouse’s country of birth as “Native Country” in order to qualify. For example, if born in Canada (an ineligible country) but spouse was born in Italy (an eligible country), it is possible to enter the Green Card Lottery.

On the application form write “Canada” as “Country of Birth” and “Italy” as “Native Country”.

This qualifies the applicant to enter the Green Card Lottery.
